

Unit 2: Subject/object pronouns

Employment

Directions: Circle the letter in front of the correct pronoun.

Now let's start with a conversation between Alfred Marin and his wife Hilda Marin. Alfred Marin is looking for a new job. Right now _____ has a job at Jones

- a. she
- b. him
- c. he

Manufacturing Company. _____ doesn't like _____ because he works nights.

- | | |
|-------|--------|
| a. I | a. you |
| b. He | b. her |
| c. We | c. it |

Hilda, his wife, wants him to be home at night. She has a day job and _____ don't see each other very often.

- a. them
- b. they
- c. he

Here is a conversation between them:

Hilda: Alfred, _____ wish that _____ would find a new job.

- | | |
|---------|--------|
| a. I | a. him |
| b. He | b. you |
| c. They | c. she |

Alfred: _____'re right. _____ is not good for us to see so little of each other.

- | | |
|--------|---------|
| a. I | a. It |
| b. He | b. They |
| c. You | c. He |

Will you help _____ look through the want ads this morning?

- a. it
- b. me
- c. him

Hilda: Yes. It is a good idea to start looking right away.

