

Alfred's Search for a Job

Alfred is thinking about changing jobs and working for the Smith Company headquarters in Phoenix.

Yesterday, Alfred went to the Smith Company headquarters in Phoenix, The secretary gave him an application form to fill out. The form had these questions.

What is your first name?

What is your last name?

What is your social security number?

Where do you live?

When were you born?

How old are you?

These are some of the information questions Alfred Marin has to answer in order to fill in a job application. Alfred filled out the form and turned it in to the secretary.

Practice the questions above with another student. Fill in the information in the blanks below.

What is your first name?

What is your last name?

What is your social security number?

Where do you live?

When were you born?

How old are you?
